

EARLY TRANSFER ACADEMIC ADVISEMENT

Year Two: Fall 2023

EARLY TRANSFER ACADEMIC ADVISEMENT

- Launched Fall 2022 with successful results.
- Opportunity for admitted transfers to meet with an academic advisor prior to attending New Student Orientation
- Eligible new transfer students were admitted February 1, 2023 through April 14, 2023.
- Extensive collaboration between the Office of Admissions, Registrar's Office, the UAC, and New Student Orientation

FALL 2023 ASSESSMENT

- 771 transfer students were admitted as part of the initiative
- 342 (44%) requested to participate
- 277 (81%) scheduled advisement appointments
- 229 (82.7%) attended an advisement appointment or special May orientation
- 211 (93%) enrolled in Fall 2023

TOP MAJORS

- Psychology
- Biology
- Criminal Justice
- Computer Science
- Sport and Entertainment Management
- Exercise Science

DATA HIGHLIGHTS

- Participation increased by 53 students (30%) for Fall 2023
- Which resulted in 45 more enrolled students (26.8%) compared to Fall 2022

ADVISOR REACTION

- 91.7% found participating in early transfer advisement beneficial or very beneficial.
- Advisors noted some challenges, such as students not showing up for appointments or signing up and then opting to attend NSO later in the summer.
- Fall 2024 planning will include continued improvement on communication to students about the purpose and benefits of early advising.

QUESTIONS, COMMENTS, OR CONCERNS?

Amanda Lucas Shores

Director of Transfer Advising and Retention Initiatives

University Advising Center

alucas@sc.edu

UNIVERSITY OF
South Carolina