

Graduate Assistantships in Spark: Music Leadership at Carolina

The University of South Carolina School of Music has an enrollment of 500 music majors, with instruction offered by more than 50 faculty. More than 100 full- and part-time graduate assistants serve in a number of capacities school-wide. The School of Music is housed in a state-of-the-art music facility adjoining the Koger Center for the Arts. The university is located in the capital city, Columbia, a culturally vibrant metropolis that boasts a professional orchestra, ballet companies, theater companies and museums.

The Spark Graduate Assistant provides studio instruction for nonmusic majors and lower-division music students and coaches quartets. Responsibilities require up to 9 hours per week, and the nine month stipend ranges up to $4,500 (tuition supplements may boost the value of the position to $18,000). Assistantships in music theory, music history, and facilities management may also be available to qualified applicants.

To Apply

Applicants must have been admitted into a degree program before full consideration of the assistantship application can be given. Priority is given to applicants who have submitted all application materials by February 1.
